

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

MARSHA BYRD,

Plaintiff,

v.

STATE OF NEVADA, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 2:25-cv-00029-GMN-MDC
ORDER DISMISSING AND CLOSING
CASE

This action began with a pro se civil-rights complaint under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 submitted by a state prisoner. On January 8, 2025, the magistrate judge ordered Plaintiff to either file a new fully complete application to proceed in forma pauperis or pay the full $405 filing fee for this action by February 24, 2025. (ECF No. 3). The magistrate judge warned Plaintiff that this action would be subject to dismissal without prejudice if she failed to timely comply. (Id. at 2). But that deadline expired without any compliance or other response from Plaintiff.

I. DISCUSSION

District courts have the inherent power to control their dockets and “[i]n the exercise of that power, they may impose sanctions including, where appropriate . . . dismissal” of a case. Thompson v. Hous. Auth. of City of Los Angeles, 782 F.2d 829, 831 (9th Cir. 1986). A court may dismiss an action based on a party’s failure to obey a court order or comply with local rules. Malone v. U.S. Postal Service, 833 F.2d 128, 130 (9th Cir. 1987) (dismissal for failure to comply with court order); Henderson v. Duncan, 779 F.2d 1421, 1424 (9th Cir. 1986) (dismissal for lack of prosecution and failure to comply with local rules). In determining whether to dismiss an action on these grounds, the court must consider: (1) the public’s interest in expeditious resolution of litigation; (2) the court’s need to manage its docket; (3) the risk of prejudice to the defendants; (4) the public policy favoring disposition of cases on their merits; and (5) the availability of less drastic alternatives. In re Phenylpropanolamine Prod. Liab. Litig., 460 F.3d 1217, 1226 (9th Cir. 2006) (quoting Malone, 833 F.2d at 130).

1 The first two factors, the public's interest in expeditiously resolving this litigation and the
2 Court's interest in managing its docket, weigh in favor of dismissal of Plaintiff's claims. The third
3 factor, risk of prejudice to defendants, also weighs in favor of dismissal because a presumption of 4 injury arises from the occurrence of unreasonable delay in prosecuting an action. See Anderson v.
5 Air West, 542 F.2d 522, 524 (9th Cir. 1976). The fourth factor—the public policy favoring
6 disposition of cases on their merits—is greatly outweighed by the factors favoring dismissal.

7 The fifth factor requires this Court to consider whether less drastic alternatives can be used
8 to correct the party's failure that brought about the need to consider dismissal. Yourish v. Cal.
9 Amplifier, 191 F.3d 983, 992 (9th Cir. 1999) (explaining that considering less drastic alternatives
10 before the party has disobeyed a court order does not satisfy this factor); accord Pagtalunan v.
11 Galaza, 291 F.3d 639, 643 & n.4 (9th Cir. 2002). Courts "need not exhaust every sanction short
12 of dismissal before finally dismissing a case, but must explore possible and meaningful
13 alternatives." Henderson, 779 F.2d at 1424. Because the Court cannot operate without collecting
14 reasonable fees and litigation cannot progress without Plaintiff's compliance with the Court's 15 orders, the only alternative is to enter a second order setting another deadline. But repeating an 16 ignored order often only delays the inevitable and squanders the Court's finite resources. The 17 circumstances here do not indicate that this case will be an exception. Setting another deadline is 18 not a meaningful alternative given these circumstances. So, the fifth factor favors dismissal.

19 II. CONCLUSION

20 Having thoroughly considered these dismissal factors, the Court finds that they weigh in 21 favor of dismissal. IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that THIS ACTION IS DISMISSED
22 without prejudice based on the plaintiff's failure to address the matter of the filing fee in 23 compliance with the Court's January 8, 2025, order. The Clerk of Court is kindly directed to 24 ENTER JUDGMENT accordingly and CLOSE THIS CASE. If Marsha Byrd wishes to pursue
25 her claims, she must file a complaint in a new case and either apply for in forma pauperis status
26 or pay the required filing fee for that action.
